

[LEFT] Part I on Ambassador Camillo Gonsalves' speech to the United Nations General Debate; [RIGHT] Part II on Ambassador Gonsalves' speech to the United Nations General Debate. (The entire statement can also be viewed via RealPlayer by clicking HERE)

NEW YORK, NY, September 29, 2008: Ambassador Camillo Gonsalves of Saint Vincent and the Grenadines

The Ambassador identified a single root cause for many of the issues facing the developing world and the Caribbean

Gonsalves added that the "invisible hand" of the market is still clasped firmly around the throats of poor

Ambassador Gonsalves stated that, in addition to the globalised neoliberal WTO and IMF organizations, the

The Ambassador said his country noted the "irony of these paternalistic prescriptions from the same countries

The Vincentian envoy said that in addition to the "unholy trinity of exogenous assaults" on its development

The citizens of Saint Vincent and the Grenadines would soon vote on a new constitution to transform the

Click [HERE to view a copy of Ambassador Gonsalves' Statement in .pdf format]

This article contains elements from the UN News Center, the UN Department of Public Information, I Witness News, Caribbean360.com and St. Kitts/Nevis Sun

UN Department of Public Information