

Ambassador Camillo Gonsalves of Saint Vincent and the Grenadines addressing the UN's 4th High

UNITED NATIONS, NY, CARICOM, 2010. CARICOM called out the international community's "unfulfilled promises" for development.

At the United Nations' Fourth High Level Dialogue on Financing for Development, Ambassador Camillo

The Vincentian Ambassador, who was speaking on behalf of the Caribbean Community (CARICOM), in Gonsalves reminded the UN that CARICOM "continues to grapple with the effects of the global economic

"The short and medium-term economic forecasts remain bleak as we will continue to feel the lagging effects

The Ambassador referred to the UN's October 2009 Conference on the World Financial and Economic Crisis and Its Impact on Development, which he co-facilitated, to

These steps include increased concessional financing, better market access for Caribbean exports, and

Also, "CARICOM remains concerned over the growing G20 and OECD debt, yet the decisions of these groups as

Gonsalves also made special mention of the financing for development needs of Haiti in the wake of its

The Ambassador reiterated the call made at the recent CARICOM Heads of Government Meeting in

"CARICOM remains convinced that if the benefits of globalization are to be shared by all, the international

[Click

HERE

to view a copy of Ambassador Gonsalves' Statement in