

Ambassador Camillo Gonsalves of Saint Vincent and the Grenadines addressing the UN's 4th High

UNITED NATIONS, NY, CARICOM, 2010. CARICOM called out the international community's slow development

At the United Nations' Fourth High Level Dialogue on Financing for Development , Ambassador Cami

The Vincentian Ambassador, who was speaking on behalf of the Caribbean Community (CARICOM), i

Gonsalves reminded the UN that CARICOM "continues to grapple with the effects of the global econo

"The short and medium-term economic forecasts remain bleak as we will continue to feel the lagging e

The Ambassador referred to the UN Confidence in the World Financial and Economic Crisis and Its Impact on Development , which he co-facilitated , to

These steps include increased concessionary financing, better market access for Caribbean exports, a

Also, "CARICOM remains G20 on the G20 over the growing G20 , yet the decisions of this group as gath

Gonsalves also made special mention of the financing for development needs of Haiti in the wake of its

The Ambassador reiterated the call made at the recent CARICOM Heads of Government Meeting in R

"CARICOM remains convinced that if the benefits of globalization are to be shared by all, the internatio

[Click

HERE

to view a copy of Ambassador Gonsalves' Statement in