

The Embassy of Saint Vincent and the Grenadines in Washington D.C. is compiling a database of persons in the Vincentian Diaspora who are skilled, own their own businesses and/or have University degrees.

This is in an effort facilitate Diaspora participation in disaster response management and mitigation and in the general development thrust of St. Vincent and the Grenadines.

The information provided will not be used for any other purpose than the ones stated above and participation is 100% voluntary.

To participate, please click the here.

Upon completing the form, you would be prompted to e-mail the completed form. This is done to ensure the privacy and security of the information provided and to avoid storing your information on our web server.

Thank you in advance for your kind participation.